SECRET WELL KEPT.

The few who have known of the quiet investigation that has been made under the direction of the District Attorney's office have kept their mouths shut. The county clerk, the constable for the Lompoc township.

When every bridge on the Santa Ynez River went out with the big storm last January, the Supervisors, under the emergency provisions, ordered the rebuilding of the bridges at once. The Robinson bridge near Lompoc and the Mission bridge near Santa Ynez being selected. There was no competitive bidding, but the work was given to Hyde Harjes & Co. of San Francisco. This action called forth some criticism at the time.

In view of the necessity for immediate reconstruction of the bridges, the method by which the work was done was allowed to stand without official investigation.

Police Endeavor to Enforce New Ordinance, and Dozen Minor Riots Result—Violators to Be Arrested. Company Asks Aid in Keeping the Law.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.) SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 19.—There were numerous minor riots in the southern and Mission districts tonight, as a result of an attempt by the police to enforce the ordinance designed to prevent the overcrowding of street cars.

Assistant President Mulhally of the United Railroads called upon Chief of Police Bigg today and asked for the enforcement of the ordinance in the laboring districts and along Market street, about 6 o'clock, the workmen swarmed around the cars, climbing on top and blocking the ways so that it was impossible to open the cars properly and was annoying to the public.

Bigg made a personal inspection of the traffic and at once issued orders that the overcrowding be prevented. When the police tried to carry out his orders the passengers were not aware of the police and were perched on top of the cars and refused to vacate their positions.

In several cases the police were required to use force and fighting resulted. These disturbances occurred at a dozen places, but no one was seriously injured.

It is the intention of the police to arrest all violators of the law if the ordinance is not observed.

BIGGY ANNOUNCES POLICE SHAKE-UP.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.) SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 19.—The predicted "shake-up" in the police department will take place tomorrow. Chief of Police Bigg tonight gave out the changes which he will put into force tomorrow. The detective bureau is almost entirely changed, and about a dozen men have been engaged in the special work of ferreting out crime and criminals who go back to ordinary patrol duty, while the head of the bureau will be assigned to other work.

Capt. H. H. Colby, who has been at the head of the detective force, is ordered to report for assignment as the commander of Co. G. Capt. James Kelly is relieved from station duty to become captain of the detective force.

The following have been relieved from detective duties and ordered to report for patrol duty: Detectives Bell, Brown, Parsons, Fred, Graham, Taylor, Wallace and McGovern. A number of these have been on the detective force for years.

The following patrolmen will be promoted to the detective squad: T. J. Bailey, Thomas Burke, David Murr.

DEATH TO MOSQUITOES.

Little Fish That Subsists Upon Larvae of Pest May Be Brought to America.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES) WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) A brand new method of getting rid of malaria mosquitoes was reported to the State Department today after having been successfully tried in Switzerland and Italy.

A species of fish has been discovered in Europe which subsists on the larvae of mosquitoes and they inhabit the shallow water. It has the scientific name of pseudomugil, but it is popularly known as the "blue eye." The fish is only two and one-half inches long, but it is sure death to the mosquito egg.

Surgeon-General Wyman of the public health bureau is deeply interested in its discovery and is considering the introduction of the fish into this country to help clean up the infected swamp sections. They could also render valuable service on the shores of Panama.

ON THE BARBARY COAST.

RIVAL SULTANS MAY BE IN GREAT BATTLE.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

TANGIER (Morocco) Sept. 19.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) A great battle at Rabat is momentarily expected.

It may be in progress today and the authorities are anxiously waiting for news. Sultan Abd el Aziz, with an army of 15,000 men, was due at Rabat yesterday. Sultan Mul-Hafid has been waiting with another large army for his opponent. The claims of the rival rulers will be settled, once for all, in a decisive conflict.

When Abdul Aziz left the northern capital he had an army of 5000. He got 10,000 more while traversing the region inhabited by the Beni Hassan tribe. The population of Rabat is divided in two camps in support of the rivals.

It is reported from Fez that a plot against Abdul Aziz has been discovered. The ringleader is a Moor named Ben Daud, who is prominent at court. He and the members of his family have been arrested and compromising correspondence between the Mul-Hafid has been seized.

Sultan Abd el Aziz has dismissed his minister.

THREE COMPANIES ORDER NICKEL-IN-THE-SLOT CARS.

Three Hundred "Conductors" Canoe to Be Installed in Windy City—Millions of Dollars Involved in Scheme for Low-observing Service—Innovation Marks New Epoch.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Three hundred new street cars, provided with nickel-in-the-slot arrangements for collecting fares, will be put in service by the Chicago City Railway Company next month.

This, together with an epoch-making innovation in the method of dispatching cars, is to inaugurate a new era in the history of the city's public transportation.

Such is the burden of three reports forwarded to Mayor Busse today. These reports, coming from the City Railway Company, the Union Traction Company, and the Board of Supervisors, forecast a long stride toward the realization of the provisions of the street-car ordinance which are expected ultimately to give this city a system second to none in the world.

The most radical of the plans is that which provides for the collection of fares. Instead of a conductor making trips up and down the car, the passengers on entering will deposit their fares in a slot contrivance.

Men Sleeping in San Francisco Shed When Effort is Made to Burn It—Man Under Arrest Suspected of Being Former Employee of the United Railroads.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 19.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Caught in a deliberate attempt to set fire to the United Railroads car barn at California and Fremont avenues, a fire was arrested late last night for arson. The arrested man gave his occupation as clerk, but it is suspected by the traction company that he was a former employee.

A number of carmen were asleep in the building at the time Christie attempted to burn it. His crime had a greater menace than simple arson.

Two demonstrations were made at 10 o'clock, the seven-year-old Geographical Mission street, where the recent riots occurred. Last night about 9 o'clock a conductor got off his car there and advanced to turn the switch and was stopped and held by a mob of about 20 men. During the melee the car was run off the track.

A little later, when another car stopped and its conductor advanced to turn the switch, some of the riotous passengers aboard rang the bell signal to go ahead and sent the car on without the conductor.

Many lesser events were reported briefly showed a desire to cause trouble and to annoy the employees of the United Railroads is rising. A number of fares, which the conductor is unable to prevent. The platform men complain that if they are in a police man to arrest offenders, they are arrested for carrying concealed weapons.

SERIOUS IN ENGLAND.

Boilermakers and Railway Servants Throughout Country Threaten to Strike.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.) LONDON, Sept. 19.—Between forty and fifty thousand members of the "boilermakers' society" will be locked out October 5.

The men affected are employed chiefly at the east coast port at Barrow and on the Clyde. The chief grievances of the employees is that the Executive Committee of the boilermakers' society has no real power and can not force the men to observe any agreement which may be adopted.

With the prospect of a strike of the members of the amalgamated society of the railway servants, which, unless prevented, will be one of the most serious ever known in the United Kingdom, the labor situation in this country is becoming most critical. Leaders of the railway men, however, are making every effort to conciliate the company, and it is hoped that arbitration or some other plan will be found to solve the problem.

In the case of the boilermakers and the railway men, shows a remarkable circumstance. The chief grievance at present of the railway men is that the company refuse to recognize their executive, while on the other hand the ship builders have recognized the leaders of the boilermakers society and come to an agreement with them, but the men themselves refuse to be bound by this understanding.

PITTSBURGH BUILDING HAUNTED BY UGLY LOAFERS.

Non-union Operators Find It Necessary to Sleep and Eat in the Office—Strikers Grow Desperate and Violence in Fact—Courts to Be Asked for Injunction.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) PITTSBURGH, Sept. 19.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) A special detail of city policemen is on guard at the Postal Telegraph building, to guard against an outbreak of violence which is feared by Manager A. W. Rinehart of the Postal company and officials of the police department.

Strikers have become desperate during the last few days, in their efforts to induce the non-union operators to desert the keys.

According to Manager Rinehart, they have been resorting to violence to intimidate workers. Rinehart today conferred with Superintendent McQuade of the Police Bureau, declaring that strikers were making threats with taunts and threats, while several workers have narrowly escaped being attacked by running.

Superintendent McQuade assigned a special squad of police to guard the building at night. Plain-clothesmen were ordered to patrol the streets in the vicinity of the building and to arrest any person making threats or otherwise attempting to intimidate the non-union operators.

Since beginning the strike, both companies have kept their workers constantly in the building. Many operators are attempting to leave the building, but are being held back by the strikers, thus giving opportunity to taunt and abuse them.

It is probable that the courts will be asked to issue an injunction against the strikers from gathering near the building or attempting to intimidate the workers.

Superintendent McQuade declares the whole department will be used, if necessary, to prevent violence.

Officials of the union deny that the strikers are attempting violence, and declare the union "will not countenance intimidation."

STRIKE TERRORIZES ITALY.

CANORA (Italy) Sept. 19.—The agrarian strike is growing in this vicinity and the whole country is in a state of terror. The strikers are threatening to prevent farmers from going to their fields. A striker was shot dead and a mob was formed to lynch the guard, who was responsible for the shooting.

Armored Cruiser Charleston Joins Several Other Warships at Mare Island.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.) SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 19.—The growing fleet of warships in this bay was added to today by the arrival from San Francisco of the armored cruiser Charleston in command of Capt. Winslow.

The cruiser proceeded at once to Mare Island, where she joined the battleship Albany, the cruiser Raleigh and a number of torpedo destroyers.

In all probability all of the above-named vessels will remain at the navy yard until the coming of the cruiser squadron from Honolulu.

Bride is Hauled at 4 a.m. in Motor Cart, and Magistrate Performs Novel Ceremony.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) ATLANTIC CITY (N. J.) Sept. 19.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Refusing to take care to marry at 4 o'clock A.M. Miss Mabel S. Lawton, a pretty Atlantic City girl, was hauled in a motor cart at that hour today, by friends of Charles Stebbins, the prospective husband, to the office of Magistrate Leonard, where the ceremony was performed by the sleepy official in his pajamas and bath robe.

The wedding, which took place with bride and groom still perched on the apparatus, was a restaurant where the couple were given a bridal supper, and then they were taken to the hotel.

The bridegroom started the neighborhood, and a hundred spectators crowded around the scene of the ceremony. The bride was being routed out of bed.

SLAVE GIRL IS FREED.

Eleven-Year-Old Child Brought from Greece is Taken Away from Master in Chicago.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Brought from her home in sunny Greece to labor in slavery in Chicago, a seven-year-old Greek girl, Kostas, dark-haired, dark-eyed and pretty, was freed today by an immigration inspector.

Joanis Kostas, No. 29 Lombard street, who is charged with having brought the tiny slave girl to Chicago, was arrested.

The discovery that genuine slavery existed in Chicago came as a result of the crusade against the Greek peddlers here. More than a dozen cases in this connection will be presented to the October grand jury.

of all the stocks of the subsidiary companies.

"Yes, sir," replied Mr. Tilford.

Mr. Tilford was asked if he could produce a record showing the amount of stock of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey issued to John D. Rockefeller. The witness replied that he did not know.

Mr. Kellogg then called upon the witness to produce a record showing the amount of stock of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey issued to John D. Rockefeller, Mr. H. H. Rogers, William G. Rockefeller, H. M. Flagler, O. H. Payne, E. B. Harkness and John D. Archbold; also the amount of the stock of the Standard Oil Company issued to the same persons. These records will show, according to Mr. Kellogg, whether Mr. Rockefeller and his associates purchased or disposed of any of their holdings in the oil combine during the liquidation period.

ORIGINATOR OF PLAN.

Mr. Tilford was asked who made up the plan to place the stocks of the subsidiary companies in the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey. The witness said he did not know.

Mr. Tilford said he had been president of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana from 1889 to 1890; president of the Standard Oil Company of Iowa from 1889 to the spring of this year; and was president of the Union Tank Line in 1891. He could not give a list of officers and directors of these subsidiary companies in the liquidation period, but admitted that during the liquidation of the trust there was no change in the management of the companies.

Mr. Tilford was asked if he knew H. C. Folger and C. M. Payne. He replied that he did. He had heard of the Corsicana Refining Company of Texas, but did not know that H. C. Folger and C. M. Payne owned it. He did not know it was operated in Texas under the names of H. C. Folger and C. M. Payne because the State will not permit the Standard Oil Company to do business there.

"Mr. Folger and Mr. Payne are quite sure that the Standard Oil Company and Oil Company, are they not?" asked Mr. Kellogg.

"Yes, they are," replied the witness.

Mr. Kellogg as to whether the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey had any interests in Texas received any dividends from any companies operating there. Mr. Tilford said that to his knowledge the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey had no such interests. Judge Ferris announced that the proceedings would be adjourned because of the illness of one of the counsel. Mr. G. Milburn said that his associate, Morris Rosenthal, was suffering from a slight indisposition.

SCHEME OF STANDARD UNEARTHED IN OHIO.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.) FINDLAY (O.) Sept. 19.—Suits were filed in the Common Pleas Court today by W. D. David, county prosecutor, to deprive the Manhattan Oil Company of its charter and enjoin it from paying a higher price for oil than is paid by the Buckeye Pipe Line Company in the same territory.

The petition further alleges that the Manhattan Oil Company, a constituent of the Standard Oil Company, took over its refinery, the Ohio Oil Company took its production, and the Union Tank Line its tank cars, leaving the company only its gathering lines, which are the so-called independent companies.

It is alleged that for the last seven years the company has been operating as a gathering medium for the Buckeye Pipe Line Company, paying 5 cents a barrel more for the oil than the company would have paid had it been a gathering medium for the Buckeye Pipe Line Company, yet the Manhattan paid dividends annually to its stockholders.

NO "DELAYS" FROM STRIKE.

Senders' Reservation Clause is Withdrawn from Western Union Messages in the East.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.) NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—Superintendent Brooks of the eastern division of the Western Union Telegraph Company today issued instructions withdrawing the reservation "subject to delay," which was placed upon telegraphic messages during the strike.

The withdrawal extends to the territory east of Buffalo and Pittsburgh and north of Washington, and includes the entire East.

THE CITY IN BRIEF

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

On Moving Car.

Peter H. Gates, 60 years old, a resident of Lankershim, fell off a moving Main-street car at First street last night about 11 o'clock, and was severely injured. He also sustained slight concussion of the brain. He was sent to the receiving hospital.

Charged With Purloining.

Jose Enriquez was arrested on the charge of petty larceny last night. The police say that Enriquez has been purloining small articles from friends. He is charged with having taken change off a bar which belonged to another man.

Cruel to Horses.

Harry Goe, driver for the L. L. Smith Truck Company, was arrested last night at Main and Ninth streets, charged with cruelty to animals. The cruelty-prevention officer said Goe was driving a worn-out team and was whipping them unmercifully. He was released from the City Jail on $25 bail.

Run Down by Car.

James Jenkins, a laborer, was run down and injured by an inbound Central-avenue car at Second and San Pedro streets last night about 9 o'clock. According to witnesses, Jenkins was crossing the street when the car ran onto him. The fender struck Jenkins and probably saved his life. His head was lacerated and his body bruised, and he sustained slight concussion of the brain.

Nabs Speedy Driver.

When ordered to stop and told that he was under arrest for violating the crossing ordinance, F. J. Allen, a driver employed by the Feather Manufacturing Company, No. 755 South San Pedro street, last night defied the patrolman and attempted to escape. Allen whipped up his horse and drove rapidly to Fifth and Hope street from Fifth and Broadway. He was overtaken and arrested. Allen's employer claims he will file charges against the officer for interfering with the driver.

BREVITIES.

On Thursday, Sept. 10, at 12 o'clock, noon, at the Realty Auction Exchange, 228 S. Spring st. (ground floor, Germain bldg.), John H. Wier, J. O. Hopkins and A. W. Lousderback will hold their second semi-monthly auction of high-class residence properties. There are over 150 properties offered for listing at this sale, but nothing was accepted except those that were genuine bargains and the owners were willing to sacrifice. The list as revised comprises some twenty pieces, which will be offered for absolute sale. A description of the properties you will find in the classified ads in all papers under Houses for Sale. Catalogue with full particulars, cuts of the houses, etc., may be had on application from John H. Saunders, 419 S. Hill st. Phone—Broadway 5637; FT718. Go out, examine the properties you are interested in, get prices on surrounding properties, then come to the auction and buy them as cheap as you can. Remem—

SHAW OBJECTS TO BIG CRUISE.

PROFESSES TO THINK THERE IS POLITICS IN IT.

Former Secretary of Treasury Declares There Is No Necessity for Sending Fleet to Pacific Coast. He Urges That United States Is in Great Need of Merchant Marine.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) In an interview just granted to a representative of Stock History, a Wall-street publication, Leslie M. Shaw, ex-Secretary of the Treasury, and president of the Carnegie Trust Company, pointed out the country's great need of a merchant marine, scored as a political move the mobilization of our warships in Pacific waters, and urged conservation along all lines. He said:

"There is little use of urging on the country the great advisability and necessity of a merchant marine. Our equipment in ocean-carrying vessels is such as to call upon us the content of the civilized world. A timely illustration of our inadequacy in this regard is the necessity of the United States paying a half million dollars to foreign vessels to carry coal to the Pacific for the use of our navy. What, pray, could we do in case of war, when foreign nations, according to international law, would refuse us the use of their ships?"

"In no sense are we ready for war with any foreign country. We have no large powder supply on hand, and what our factories can manufacture in thirty days our navy would consume in two days."

"The sending of our fleet to the Pacific is warranted neither by the demands of commerce nor the preservation of peace. It is true that our foreign commerce in manufactured goods has been usefully protected, and that other nations are fast taking away from us the markets of the world, but the sending of a fleet to the Pacific will in no regard tend toward industrial peace or commercial expansion."

"Except as a political move to gain delegates for a Presidential candidate, the mobilization of our warships in the Pacific has no apparent significance."

MCKINLEY'S BODY MOVED.
Casket Containing Martyr President's Remains Is Placed Beside That of Mrs. McKinley.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.) CANTON (O.), Sept. 10.—The body of the late President McKinley, guarded by a detail of United States soldiers, was today taken from the grave in Weston Cemetery to the mausoleum on Monument Hill.

The casket was placed in the sarcophagus beside the casket containing the body of Mrs. McKinley, which was removed from the vault Wednesday. In order to surround the transfer with as much privacy as possible, visitors and most of the workmen about the tomb were excluded from the grounds and United States soldiers were on guard along the route of the funeral car.

The body of President McKinley was placed in the vault just six years ago.

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

After caucusing on a new salary ordinance yesterday, Republican Councilmen announced that ten inspectors will be dropped from the health department and fifteen policemen dismissed, but salaries will be cut.

A committee has been appointed by the Board of Health to report on the advisability of requiring all health inspectors to wear uniforms.

Judge Monroe yesterday refused to grant a divorce to Mrs. Lillian Wheaton because the testimony showed the offense charged to have been committed at another place than was alleged in the complaint.

Architect Newsome yesterday, for the second time, won his suit for fees against H. J. Woolcott.

Carroll Mason's mother, explaining a theft committed by the boy, declared he is affected by the changes of the moon.

On search warrants issued from Justice Chambers's Police Court yesterday, officers raided the home of T. Higgins and secured automobile property valued at $200, said to have been stolen from the Auto Vehicle Company.

AT THE CITY HALL.

ALL SALARIES STILL INTACT.
COUNCIL REJECTS PLAN TO CUT PAY ROLLS.

Republicans Caucus and Agree to Vote Solidly Against All Reductions. Tax Inspectors Are to Be Dropped from Health Department—Uniforms May Be Adopted.

"Pop" Blanchard scored a signal victory over the non-partisans yesterday in the final battle over salary ordinances. He led a flying wedge that tore wide open the new wage schedule, and both the police and fire departments marched through intact. As a result, not a dollar will be cut off the pay of either a policeman or a fireman, but the police force may be reduced fifteen men.

The Health Office appears to have borne the brunt of the retrenchment campaign; when the legislators finished their executive session yesterday afternoon Health Officer Powers found ten of his men numbered among the missing.

Three milk inspectors, three sanitary inspectors, a garbage inspector, the lodging-house inspector, a restaurant inspector, and one other not yet selected must go.

City Electrician Manahan, Building Inspector Backus and City Attorney Hewitt are to be warned that they must give up at least one man each. In the City Attorney's office a second man may be dropped later.

City Treasurer Hance, Assessor Malard, Tax Collector Johnson and Auditor Muesel are to be warned that they must keep their pay rolls within the budget appropriation. They may do this by economizing on supplies, by dropping one or more men, or by reducing salaries; these questions the department heads must settle among themselves.

An attempt was made to cut off the medical examiner for the Civil Service Board. The Republicans were willing for this, but the Non-Partisans themselves weakened after listening to the argument of the civil service commissioners. There was a strong intimation that there was a motive back of the proposal to have the applications for places on the police and fire departments examined by the surgeons at the Receiving Hospital.

Some one warned the Non-Partisans that Walter Parker named the police surgeons, and that to discontinue the medical examiner would be to place the fire and police forces at the mercy of the machine politician.

During the greater part of the day the Councilmen were in session behind closed doors in the mysterious chamber of the Finance Committee in the City Hall tower. Late in the afternoon they came to the secret session in the tower to the Mayor's office, and an executive conference followed. Wren and Yonkin were the only Councilmen absent.

Wallace and Dromgold held to their original proposal for retrenchment in all departments; but five votes were against them. Even President Pease refused to vote for a reduction in the pay of policemen and firemen.

"The cost of living is higher now than it has been at any other time since the Civil War," said President Pease. "I think this is a most inopportune time to consider general salary reductions."

Wallace held to the last for a reduction of $50 a month in the salary of the Chief of Detectives. He called attention to the fact that the salary was advanced $100 last year. The Republicans had caucused among themselves and agreed that no salary reductions should be conceded. They voted solidly against the reduction, and Mayor Harper joined them. When Wallace said that the salary of the Chief of Detectives is as great as that of the Chief of Police, Healy replied that it won't be after the Charter Revision Committee is through with its work. The salary of the Chief of Police is fixed by charter.

For two months Wallace and Dromgold have worked on a financial program for the year that would leave the city with money in the treasury on the first of next July. That this might be done they made appropriations in the budget for keeping $250,000 of the current revenue in the vaults and running the city short handed for a time. They said it is better to do so for one year than to have the employees borrowing money from the banks during the first three months of each year.

To save the pay rolls for the policemen and firemen this reserve fund idea has been abandoned. On July 1 the treasury will be bare again and the city government will lead a hand-to-mouth existence for at least one more year.

Uniforms for Inspectors.
Health Commissioner Moore asked the Health Board yesterday to recommend to the Council that an ordinance be passed requiring all health inspectors to wear uniforms. He said that this will make it easy to trace the inspectors of the health department and to learn whether they are working when away from the office. Commissioner Moore intimated that some of the inspectors are in the habit of loafing in billiard halls when they should be out in their districts. Mayor Harper named Commissioners Moore and Newell and Health Officer Powers as a committee to consider the advisability of uniforming health inspectors.

Francis Wins.
Fire Commissioner Schwann led the Highland Park Protective League to victory yesterday in the contest over a planing mill permit on Highland Avenue. Commissioner Koff and Larroye favored the permit; the secretary of the lumber company asking for the permit said that Schwann promised three weeks ago to vote and work for the planing mill. Schwann replied that the secretary called on him in his office and misrepresented facts. Mayor Harper and Commissioner McGarry voted with Schwann and the permit was denied. This is the fourth time that the Montgomery-Mullen Company has sought to locate a planing mill in Highland Park.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.
PROVE CHARGE, BUT NO DECREE.

Judge Moore Refuses to Grant Divorce to Mrs. Lillian Wheaton Because Specific Charge Is Not Established, Though Similar Offense Is Established.

Lillian G. Wheaton, yesterday sought a divorce from Frederick G. Wheaton on statutory grounds, with the assistance of a couple of detectives. The proof of the fact was sufficient, in the judgment of the court, yet the decree was not granted.

John Woodford, private detective, gave the conclusive testimony, and his professional labors with Mr. Wheaton as a subject appear to have been absurdly easy.

Woodford testified that he and the other detective had gone to a prominent hotel on the evening of July 25, and there, in pursuance of a previous arrangement, an acquaintance introduced them to the man they were in search of.

"We knew he was in the habit of going around," said the witness, "so we just waited for him to make the suggestion."

The suggestions had been forthcoming, according to the witness, and though they were pitifully lacking in originality, and were of a squalid character, they were eminently satisfactory to the detectives.

Accompanied by his new acquaintances, Wheaton made his way to the field of Ballerina's activity, and there, according to Woodford, the desired evidence was secured.

In the complaint, however, it was stated that Wheaton's offense was committed at No. 137 Franklin street. The partner in sin being unknown to the plaintiff.

While Woodford was testifying, Judge Monroe kept glancing at the plaintiff, and finally interrupted the testimony to ask the attorney in the case if he could establish the specific charge in the complaint, as to time and place.

The attorney said he could not, and declared this unnecessary. The judge did not agree with him.

"If you can't prove that, I can't give you a decree," he said. "Your evidence is sufficient, while I don't think much of that sort of business, but if you want to secure a decree on it you will have to amend your complaint."

The judge then asked the attorney if he knew the present whereabouts of the defendant, and received a negative answer.

"Well, I do," said the judge, and read a letter he had received from the absent. It is as follows:

Judge of the Superior Court, Your Honor—I hear my wife is suing me for divorce. If this unusual procedure results in being granted a decree, I want an order made that I am to have my son, Paul, with me here in Chicago six months in the year.

The complaint will be amended, and Mrs. Wheaton probably will receive her decree, but it seems unlikely that the request of Wheaton, as to the son, will be granted.

JURORS FEW.
NOT ON THE TAX ROLLS.

All day yesterday Justice Selph and counsel in the case of the People against Walter R. Dowlin wrestled with the problem of a jury.

To begin with, a venire of forty-eight had been provided, but only ten jurors had been secured, and Justice Selph ordered another venire from which to secure the other two. The majority of the veniremen were dismissed because disqualified by the fact that their names do not appear on the tax rolls.

Justice Selph, arrested in Pasadena on a charge of practicing medicine without a license, is described in the complaint as having been engaged in "oxidizing the blood by mechanical means," but his statements indicate that he is a Lewis.

The complaining witness is H. J. Lewis, a detective employed by the State Board of Medical Examiners.

ARCHITECT WINS.
SECOND SUIT FOR FEES.

For the second time, J. Cather Newsome yesterday won his suit against H. J. Woolcott for architect's fees. The award of the jury in the present instance being $200, which is $700 less than the former award. In the case concluded yesterday, Newsome sued for $2200, while in the previous suit, which came to trial last December, $3200 was his claim, and $1500 the award. Woolcott appealed the former case, and the Appellate Court ordered a new trial.

The plaintiff claimed that he had been engaged to draw plans for a hotel building at Ninth street and Grand avenue, and $1200 was paid him by check in September, 1929. Newsome's plans were never used, and later a different building was erected on the property and Newsome was dismissed.

The defendant claimed that Newsome had been fully paid with the $1200 check, but the architect thought otherwise.

MOON BLAMED.
MOTHER'S DEFENSE OF BOY.

To the changes of the moon, and a peculiar influence they seem to exert upon the character and feelings of a year-old Carroll Mason of Santa Monica, is charged the trouble in which the boy now finds himself.

Carroll's mother told Judge Wilbur yesterday that her son was always wayward and naughty in the time of the new moon, though at all other times he was a model boy.

When the present moon was a silver sliver in the western sky, it seems, the mood which comes upon young Mason at such times led him into committing more serious than mischief for he took $2 from a neighbor's house.

His arrest followed, and yesterday he was examined in the Juvenile Court. Judge Wilbur withheld his decision in the case, and continued it one week for further hearing.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.
DAMAGES WANTED. William T. Turner and Margaret J. Turner yesterday filed suit against the Los Angeles-Pacific Railway Company for $15,742 damages for alleged personal injuries to Mrs. Turner. The complaint states that she was thrown to the street, June 23, at Hill and West Ninth streets, by the sudden starting of the wheels of a passenger train. It is claimed she suffered a fracture of the left hip.

THE INFERIOR COURTS.
AUTO SUPPLIES TAKEN IN RAID.

WORKMEN CHARGED WITH THEFT ARE ARRESTED.

Employees of Vehicle Company Alleged to Have Helped Themselves to Valuable Tools and Parts With Intention of Starting Business. Goods Found in Room of One.

On search warrants issued yesterday from Justice Chambers's Police Court, Detectives Roberts and Ritch raided the apartments of T. A. Higgins at No. 111 College street, and there secured automobile supplies valued at $500, alleged to have been stolen from the Auto Vehicle Company at Tenth and South Main streets. Higgins and his partner, E. Bellinger, are to be tried on charges of petty larceny.

Both men were employed as expert workmen by the Auto Vehicle Company. They had worked there several months.

The superintendent of the concern entered the complaint against the workmen. He said the company had been missing property for some time. Expensive parts of machinery, such as could not be replaced without sending East, would suddenly disappear.

Dedicate tools of considerable value made the same mysterious exit from the shop. Then the superintendent began to notice that the two workmen invariably brought a satchel to work with them in the morning and carried it away at night.

An investigation followed, and a search warrant was sworn out. The workmen were taken to the jail next Saturday night. It was learned yesterday that they had gone into partnership and were to open up an automobile repair shop within the next month.

It is alleged that the loot secured from the Auto Vehicle Company was to have been used as part of the stock of the new concern.

In the Higgins rooms the officers found carburetors, tools and supplies under the bed and in a despatch. The property was taken to the Police Station, along with Bellinger and Higgins.

AFTER SPEEDERS.
CAMPAIGN RENEWED.

After an enforced inactivity because of the fact that their motorcycles were broken, Motorcycle Officers, Coo and Humphreys, yesterday resumed work on the speedways, and four auto speeders, charged with violating the ordinance, were haled into Police Court.

O. Warner, who has been fined several times during the past three months, was the first victim. He was driving his machine west on Pico street when the officers took up the chase. His speed was thirty-five miles an hour, it is alleged.

After chasing him two miles, the officers managed to overtake him. He was fined $10. Three other speeders paid similar fines.

STOCK SOLD TO HALE'S.
Trustee for Le Sage Brothers Company Closes Out Business of Corporation at Good Figure.

O. B. Souder, trustee for the Le Sage Brothers Company, yesterday signed contracts with the J. M. Hale Co. of this city, Hale Bros. of San Francisco and Sacramento, and Olovich & Streicher of the Mammoth Shoe House, for the sale of the entire stock of the Bon Marché. The sale price was $140,000.

The total stock disposed of represents an original cost of approximately $300,000. The entire stock of woollens, silks, linens and cottons is taken over by the J. M. Hale Co. and Hale Bros. $100,000 being the purchase price. Olovich & Streicher will pay $40,000 for the shoe stock.

The purchasers have not yet taken possession, but will do so at once. A large part of the dry goods will be moved north to the Hale store, which remained closed all day yesterday, while a small army of clerks and accountants got the stock into readiness.

There yet remain the fixtures and lease to be disposed of. They have been offered for sale by public auction, and it is impossible to estimate what they will bring, but they have not been sold in the list of assets.

Mr. Souder stated last night that he is as yet unable to tell just how much the different creditors will realize on their claims, but that he feels assured that the Le Sage Bros. will pay not less than $100,000, and will probably satisfy the entire face of the indebtedness.

Concrete telegraph poles are coming into very general use in sections where those of good are not so readily accessible, and in some locations they are very economical. A metal framework is built up and the concrete formed around it, the pole being octagonal and slightly tapering. At the top mortises are provided for the cross-arms, which are secured by metal bolts. There are also mortises for the use of linemen in climbing.

New Town of Cocoran.

Lose Their All in McCord's Searchlight Scheme.

Suit Threatened to Obtain the Return of Money.

After investing their pitiful little savings in two town lots, supposed to be located in the suburbs of Searchlight, Miss Marion P. Rafferty and Miss Mary G. McClain, two women of middle age and in straitened circumstances, have discovered that their investment has proved practically valueless.

The disillusionment has been a sad one for them. Every dollar they saved meant self-denial and strict economy. When they bought the lots from H. H. McCord & Co. they were assured that they could realize a profit on the investment within sixty days. It is now almost a year since the first payment was made. Real estate experts say the lots have no market value.

In desperation the two investors secured the services of an attorney yesterday. Suit will be filed against the concern to secure a restitution of the money paid on the lots, on the ground that the sale was made through gross misrepresentation.

Each woman paid down $75. In January each made a second payment of $50. There is still owing $200 on each lot.

Miss Rafferty stated yesterday that the agent of the company told them that a railroad would pass close to the tract in which their lots were situated. He spoke glibly, she said, of improvements to be made, and of the great demand for lots in that section of the growing mining camp. She said she believed every word the agent told her.

"I never made an investment before," she said, sadly, "and was delighted at the kindness of the gentleman. I was so very anxious to add to my little store, and I thought this was a fine opportunity. I know better now. I can never trust any one again."

It was not long after making the second payment that Miss Rafferty was sadly awakened by an acquaintance, who was familiar with the character of the land about the little mining town. He told her that her lot and that of Miss McClain were situated on a side hill. They would never be valuable, he told her. Miss Rafferty was employed at the time, and could not find an opportunity to see the land. Her friend went to the real estate office, but was unable to obtain any satisfaction.

"Before buying that Searchlight lot," said Miss Rafferty, yesterday, "I had been saving up a dollar now and then until I had pretty near $100. It was nest-egg to be used in obtaining my entrance in some old ladies home, after I was too feeble to work. I am now over 50 years old. They admit women to homes after they reach the age of 50."

Miss McClain had been working steadily at her trade and also saved some money. She was a widow and went to the office of H. H. McCord & Co., on South Broadway. We met a man named Wilson. He told us that a railroad would soon run through a tract where he wanted to sell us lots. He guaranteed that we would never have to make but the first payment. He said the two lots could be sold within sixty days for at least $50 more than we paid for them.

"I was so anxious to get something about business but would trust him. He said my confidence was not misplaced. He showed us on a map just where the lots were located. He pointed out the route of the railroad. He said he would be honest about the lots and stated that the three lot improvements are not completed but that the curing ran out close to our lots."

"Miss McClain and I then paid down $75 each, and received a receipt and contract. We were both pleased at the chance to make some money. That was almost a year ago. We have each of us put in $225. We have been told that we were deceived and tricked. Several friends laughed at us, but it is no laughing matter for me. I am a domestic. I work hard and have to spend all my savings until I can go to work again. Miss McClain is a tailor and she has been told that she has been deceived. There is no improvement—no water, streets, light, gas, transportation or anything else, save a barren waste."

The concern which palmed off worthless lots on the two women, who have been selling similar lots to unwary ones. The lots for the most part are located on the desert or on almost inaccessible hills. Jackrabbits run over the "tract" and sidewinders at present are the principal inhabitants. There are no improvements—no water, streets, light, gas, transportation or anything else, save a barren waste.

Coach A. W. Sorenson, instructor for Los Angeles High School, who has great record.

Developments at Occidental College came thick and fast yesterday, when President Merrill made several announcements regarding the athletic department. The president, who has been in the college for several years, has a great record as a coach and a player. He has been instrumental in the development of the college's athletic program, and his decisions have been met with approval by the faculty and the students. The president's announcements regarding the athletic department were met with great interest by the students, who are eager to see the college's athletic program develop into a more organized and successful one. ## Women's Press Club Assists Hostess in Giving-Party California Girls Bewitch Them With Baskets of Fruit and Dainty Refreshments.

Dinner in the Evening.

The press humorists took half an afternoon off, yesterday, and quoted poetry instead of making jokes. Possibly they quoted their own poetry, but as they did not confess to it, nobody knew that such a crime had been committed.

The gentleman from New York, whose name might appropriately be spelled "Lamp post," instead of "Lamp-ton," was detected getting off a few gems into the ear of a junior member of the Women's Press Club. She listened patiently but made arrangements to get even. She promised to send him a poem of her own, but she also promised to write it in French, so possibly it will not have a fatal effect upon the future of the New York Sun.

The visiting humorists were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Mitchell, and the Woman's Press Club of Southern California, at the Mitchell home on Heliotrope Drive. The spacious grounds formed a poetic setting, with their grassy slopes, the pergolas of palms, the leafy nooks, the flower-bordered pools, the old-world beauty of stone walls and garden urns. Delicious music pervaded the atmosphere, and the witchery of song caused even the funny men to pause and dream.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell were assisted in receiving by Mrs. George Barry, president of the Woman's Press Club, Mrs. Mary Holland Kinkaid, and other prominent members of the organization.

Pretty summer girls, headed by Miss Dorothy Barry-Jones, niece of the host and hostess, flitted through the grounds, serving tea in wicker pergolas. Their flowered gowns, broad hats and Pomona baskets of fruit added a picturesque feature to the typical California scene.

In the Italian court, were punch tables, as well as the cones of a curious fern which grows on the place.

Among the guests who thronged the grounds were many local press representatives, artists and musicians, all engaged in trying to get a glimpse of the humorists. Many of the guests did not recognize the joke-makers when they saw them, as the excursion to Venice made the visitors late in arriving. They were here, however, Mr. Kiser an this beautiful brown-eyed better half, made a flying trip through the grounds, expressing regret every step of the way that they could not linger, but evening and a banquet were coming on.

The man from Houston, with his slouch hat, was there. He was a delightful lion, but refused to roar in character. The Yonkers Statesman's representative, Mr. Oliver, had his joke conveniently to hand. It was a joke with a point, or a lead pencil in-

EVENTS IN LOCAL SOCIETY.

MISS BESS PILBERT, who is entertaining with a house party at Ocean Park, will act as hostess this evening at a delightful affair in compliment to her younger sister, Miss Elsie Pilbert. Guests will include Miss Mildred Hellen, Miss Jennie Starr, Herbert Stephens, Paul Huntsberger and John Pilbert.

Home Wedding. Miss Nora Davis and Wallace Allen were married Wednesday, at the home of Mrs. M. L. Hinrichsen, No. 1188 East Fifty-fifth street. The ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. Dr. Dowling of Pasadena. The bride was attired in a pretty gown of white silk trimmed with real lace. She carried a shower

The singers included the Misses Gertrude Perry, Helen Glass, R. Felt and Hazel Pfeiffer. The hostess was assisted in receiving and entertaining her guests by her daughter, Miss Emma Adams, Mrs. Warren Bacon, Mrs. George Ward and Miss L. V. Learned.

Outing at Ocean Park. Miss Maude Elizabeth Richards, soloist of Christ Episcopal Church, is spending a few weeks at Ocean Park. During her outing many Los Angeles friends have been her guests.

In Honor of Mrs. Allen. Miss Emma Bell will act as hostess Saturday afternoon at an interesting little function in compliment to her sis-of bride roses. Miss Florence Hinrichsen, who had charge of the wedding music, played the popular marches. Following the ceremony a reception was held. The home was attractively decorated with red geraniums and pepper branches. Mr. and Mrs. Allen will enjoy a trip to San Diego and afterwards will make their home at Loma Linda, where they will receive their friends after October 1.

Miss Teshan to Wed. Miss Katherine E. Teshan and John Clark of Washington, D. C., will be married next Thursday. The ceremony will take place in the morning, at 1 o'clock, at St. Agnes' Church. Father O'Connell officiating. Miss Katherine Clark of Hollywood, will act as bridesmaid, and Mr. Clark will be attended by his nephew, E. Houghton. Louis Kerwin will have charge of the wedding music. Miss Teshan, who has been a resident of Los Angeles since childhood, has been a teacher in the Los Angeles city schools for a number of years. Mr. Clark has been a member of the engineer corps of the War Department at Washington, D. C., for eight years. A number of social events have been given during the week in honor of Miss Teshan, among them being a dinner party by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Moloney at their home on Prospect Place and luncheon by Mrs. K. Fitzgerald of Union avenue.

Announces Engagement. Mrs. Robert P. McReynolds entertained with an elaborate buffet luncheon yesterday afternoon at the home of her parents, Rev. and Mrs. R. P. Coulter, No. 219 North Grand avenue, in honor of the announcement of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Dan Young of Hopkinsville, Ky. Miss Moore, who is a cousin of Miss Coulter, is a strikingly handsome young woman and has a host of friends. The interesting secret was made known by means of imitation wireless telegrams on red toy balloons attached to each of the chairs. Decorations were novel and unique, consisting of a centerpiece of maidenhair ferns arranged in a large basket, and tiny baskets of balloons with red balloons fastened to the handles were given as favors. Miss Moore is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Moore, No. 223 North Grand avenue. Guests who enjoyed the afternoon were Mrs. Albert Moore, Mrs. Harold Braly, Mrs. Warren Carhart, Mrs. Stella Westfield, Mrs. Charles Bonyne, Mrs. Jack McCrea, Mrs. John V. G. Posey, Mrs. William Bayly, Jr., Mrs. Oscar Trappitt, Mrs. Chester Montgomery, Miss Elsie Laux, Miss Adele Brodbeck, Miss Annie Van Nuy, Miss Martha Pollard, Miss Alleen Jacobs, Miss Alice Harper, Miss Mary Chapman, Miss Eva Elizabeth Keating, and Miss Caroline Coulter. No date has been set for the wedding.

Weingarten-Cohen Wedding. An interesting wedding was solemnized Wednesday evening at the home of Charles Weingarten when his sister, Miss Anna Weingarten and Isaac Cohen were married.

Afternoon Reception. Mrs. George E. Adams, No. 2307 Pasadena avenue, entertained yesterday afternoon with a reception in honor of women of the E. A. C. C. at the Episcopal Church and their friends. A company of young women attended. The company sang several selections.

ter, Mrs. L. M. Allen of Pasadena. Miss Bell's guests will include twenty-five of her young women friends. The affair will take place at the Bikel apartments, where quantities of cut flowers and ferns will be used in the decorations.

To Return Wednesday. Miss Pearl Sealey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rivers Drake of Hoover street, who has been spending the past fortnight in San Francisco, will return to her home Wednesday. Miss Sealey has been the object of much social attention since the announcement of her engagement to Mr. Macomber and the time between now and the date of the wedding, October 24, will be a busy one for this charming young woman.

RAILROAD NOTES. President Mellon of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad has urged the Massachusetts Legislature to tax corporations rather than the individual holders of stocks and bonds, because the corporations can be easily reached.

A European device for consuming the smoke and cinders of locomotives has been on trial on the New York and New Haven road, with apparent success. The device draws the smoke and cinders from the firebox into a compartment, where they are consumed. This consumption produces extra heat, which is also utilized.

The steel bridge the Portland and Seattle Railroad is building across the Columbia at Vancouver will be a mile and a half long—the longest steel bridge in the world. It will be finished next January. Twenty thousand tons of steel will be used in it, not including the weight of the double track. The drawbridge is 144 feet long.

The Common Pleas Court at Philadelphia has declared the new 5-cent rate law void in Pennsylvania, and the case will be at once taken to the State Supreme Court. The claim of the Pennsylvania Railroad that the law is unconstitutional is sustained. The court also declares that the law exceeds constitutional rights.

The Pennsylvania Railroad will order 143,000 tons of steel rails for next year's use.

The total mileage of the Canadian Pacific is 10,229, as compared with 9,108 in 1904. Gross earnings the past year were $72,317,527, against $50,481,852 in 1905. The net income for the year just closed was $25,302,303, against $15,475,083 in 1905.

For the year ending June 30 the gross earnings of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railroad increased by $2,397,120; the surplus for the year by $412,125; and the profit and loss surplus by $105,577.

The surplus, after charges amounting to $7,145,816, and after charging off $412,125 for additions and betterments, is equal to 14.4 per cent. on the $49,466,500 capital stock.

HEIRESS BEGGED NOT TO BE NUN.

MISS DREXEL BOMBARDED BY ANONYMOUS LETTERS.

Story That She Is to Leave Society and Enter Convent Is Reason for Deluge of Protest—Story Officially Denied by Mr. and Mrs. Antony Drexel.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.)

LONDON, Sept. 7.—That beautiful mansion on Carlton-House Terrace, owned by Lord Curzon, once occupied by Joseph Chamberlain and now leased by Antony Drexel, is being bombarded by scores of abusive letters from the United States. Many of these letters are mysteriously worded, a majority are anonymous and all are addressed to Miss Margaretta Drexel.

Miss Drexel is the eighteen-year-old heiress of the Antony Drexel millions. She made her debut in London society this last season and at Cowes was a noted belle at the most exclusive social functions of the yachting season. The letters, which are arriving daily, are mostly abusive. Some are worse. They all protest against the beautiful young heiress' alleged intention of abandoning society and the Protestant faith to enter a Roman Catholic convent. The Drexel household is naturally thrown into a state of violent unrest by the activity of these letter-writers. Despite the fact that they are addressed to Miss Drexel herself, none reach her. The mail arriving at Carlton-House Terrace is immediately opened and the letters are burned. Miss Drexel sees none of them. In fact, she does not know that the persecution still continues.

The Drexels are all at the country house they have leased in Wiltshire. They are entertaining a large house party for the shooting. But in London they have left Mrs. Antony Drexel's private secretary to receive the letters and to guard against Miss Drexel receiving any of them or a possible crank caller.

I saw the secretary the other day about the extraordinary state of affairs. It is, he declares, to a story emanating from Chicago, regarding Miss Drexel's retirement into a convent. The persecution, he thinks, is an organized one, and has its headquarters also in Chicago, for a majority of the letters received are postmarked from that city and the surrounding western country. The motive for such an organized persecution, if there is one, is quite a mystery. There is no clue whatsoever to the letter-writers, those who sign names giving no address. The police have as yet not been appealed to, but action will certainly be taken by Mrs. Drexel if the letters continue much longer.

The convent canard is current in London. Indeed, I heard it at one of the club dinners the other day with many embellishments. London is much interested in Miss Drexel. She made her debut at one of the royal courts in the spring, and from that moment was one of the spoiled darlings of society. She was regarded as the greatest beauty, the richest heiress and most accomplished girl in the great world of London. Her success was really wonderful. King Edward and Queen Alexandra greeted her out for special attentions and openly expressed their admiration.

Mrs. Antony Drexel, herself one of the leaders of American society in London, and the acknowledged best-dressed woman in town, spent a fortune on her daughters' gowns and jewels. On good authority I have it that the young American belle received three or four offers of marriage every day. Marquises and peers of all ranks, diplomats, the great men of the day worshipped at her shrine. The three months' history of this fair American during the past London season would read like a chapter in the romance of some youthful Queen.

"Little wonder, then, that London was startled at the whispered announcement that Miss Drexel has determined to enter a convent. As I recall the story, there was so much detail that it seemed bound to be true. It was told me that Miss Drexel's grand-aunt is Mother Katherine Drexel, of the Convent of the Sacred Heart at Torredale, Pa., and that it was in this convent that the fair Margaretta Drexel had become a nun. In her own words, she is alleged to have said: 'The more I see of the world and its ways, the more I have realized its futility and emptiness. I have tired of it. My one great desire is to leave it.'

At Cowes, when Queen Alexandra went aboard the Drexel yacht, "Margherita," according to the story, she asked Miss Drexel why she was so anxious to take the veil. The girl is quoted as saying: 'The gaieties of the world are false. The world of society is insincere. I can never be happy, if it or in it.' Queen Alexandra is reported as being so touched that she wept.

The story goes on to tell of alleged happenings at the great Drexel ball, given in July. Miss Drexel, during the height of the dancing, was missed. The search revealed her kneeling in all the pomp and vanity of her glittering ball dress, at the foot of the crucifix in her little white room, praying for her release from the world, the giddy waltzes, were enmeshed in the wiles of the world, the flesh and the devil.

The official denial of the Drexel family, given to me the other day, brands this circumstantial story as absurd. The Drexels are Protestants, the branch to which the mother superior of the Torredale convent belongs being the only Catholics. Miss Drexel, till her debut this year, has been under the ceaseless care of a governess. She has simply delighted in society, the only Catholics. Miss Drexel has no Catholic tendencies, nor marked religious fervor. As to dancing, she is passionately fond of it, and at the ball mentioned, was the instigator of several extra dances. Her mother has frequently had to warn her about over-exertion. When the convent canard first appeared, no one was more astonished than Miss Drexel herself. She has never even thought of such a thing.

And still the story circulates. Perhaps it emanated from a discomfited editor in a chaffing but graceful way Miss Drexel may have refused him by declaring that, in fact, she was going to leave the merry world and become a nun. A thoughtless speech—perhaps forgotten the moment uttered. But, then, young girls do say some thoughtless things—even American beauties and heiresses.

SHOCK IS FELT GENERALLY IN SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA.

TOURING COMPANY'S PRESIDENT SEVERELY INJURED.

LONG BEACH, Sept. 19.—W. E. Morey, president and general manager of the Southern California Touring Company, was struck on the head by a crank with which he was starting a

Mr. Morey had taken a small automobile mobile out in place of one of the company's auto-busses, in use on the Seventh-street line and which had been incapacitated, and at the Obispo avenue terminus of the line, two miles from the city, he met with the accident.

luckily started the machine and with the blood from the wound flowing down his face, drove the two miles to town and crawled into a doctor's office for treatment.

The flying handle struck Mr. Morey on the left cheek bone and over the left eye. Had the blow fallen an inch farther to the left, according to the physician, it must have resulted fatally.

NARROW ESCAPE.
R. A. Blackney of No. 625 American avenue, an employee of the Pacific Electric Company, was brought to this city from Dominquez in an unconscious condition today. The young man had been engaged with a crew of workmen in setting poles along the new four mile right of way and a short time ago he was falling from the top of one of the poles struck him in the face.
Fortunately for Blackney he had looked up just the instant the iron struck him and instead of crashing down on his skull it struck him a glancing blow that broke his teeth, lacerating the flesh badly and rendering him unconscious but not breaking

NATURAL GAS.

Two wells recently bored on the shores of the inner harbor for the purpose of securing water, surprised the community by producing a gas which, as one is sufficient quantities to be utilized for fuel. They have increased the flow of gas so greatly within the past week that it is now the fuel problem in Long Beach has solved itself.

The first of the wells bored was beside the asbestos factory, and ever since it was opened the Long Beach Asbestos Company has been using natural gas fuel. The second well was dug down in close proximity to the Port Water Laundry Company, and here, a flow, which was of not much consequence, was obtained. The volume under the management of the laundry is beginning to consider the

The city owns five acres of land adjoining the property of the laundry and asbestos companies, and today the subject of a municipal gas plant, with natural gas used, was spoken of. An engineer who has been approached by the asbestos people declares that gas exists in large quantities below the land harbor, and is finding its way to a water stratum that has been tapped. Wells carried below this stratum, according to the engineer, would produce gas in unlimited quantities.

WOULD NOT ACCEPT.

Mayor F. H. Downs and Trustees Benson and Lent have declared there no deadlock over the appointment of the water commission. It has been alleged that Trustees Mohrenstcher and Went favored the appointment of Harry Barndollar and R. V. Foster, and that Mayor Downs and Trustee Benjamin opposed this plan. Today Trustee Went stated that there was no truth in the rumor, as the appointment of the commission has not reached a point yet where a deadlock would be possible. Harry Barndollar, vice-presiof the state Bank, stated today that as a result of recent developments, he should not now accept the appointment were it tendered to him.

LONG BEACH NOTES.

R. H. Young, prominent realty dealer and former member of the official board of the First Methodist Church, was removed from the board because he expressed the belief that it would be expedient to serve liquor with meals at the new Hotel Virginia who was in consequence declared ineligible for mayoralty honors. He declared today that there are no other persons who are not the slightest

At a meeting held this morning the Labor Committee of the Chamber of Commerce endorsed the proposition of Capt. H. S. Carver to dredge Cerritos Lagoon and will recommend to the number of Commerce at a regular meeting tomorrow that such an instrument be filed with the Board of Trustees, now considering the advisability of making an appropriation for the scheme. The amount asked is only $100; but the City Attorney has expressed the opinion that it cannot be legally made and would also be an ill-advised move at this time.
